Footnotes:

- Anything in quotes is a specific question or statement that needs to be heard (unless otherwise noted) in order to mark off the square. And no, YOU can’t say it.
- If you make a bingo, send a clear picture of your card to evanm@anigamers.com for acknowledgements on Ani-Gamers!
- Bonus points will be given for specific pairings of squares that will make your bingo better than others’ claims. These are given for specifically paired squares: O2 + T5, U3 - O5 (Marco without ANY Polo), and U5 + O4 (we’ll know if you fib on this one).
